Midland County Government Offices Closed to Public Access

In response to the COVID-19 Pandemic, Midland County Government has been taking steps to meet the Orders of Governor Whitmer and the Michigan Supreme Court. With these Orders in mind and with guidance from the State of Michigan, the Midland County Services Building will be closed to the general public from March 20, 2020 until further notice. Employees are expected to report to their offices during this time. We have asked all staff who begin to experience illness symptoms to stay home.

We are encouraging residents to do as much business over the phone or online as possible. Individuals who have a previously scheduled appointment should contact the respective office before traveling to the County Services Building or Courthouse.

The Midland County Courthouse will remain open and has also adopted temporary measures designed to reduce the amount of people coming into the courthouse. The Courts ask that people, who are not a party to a case, not enter the court in order to reduce risks of exposure to the public as well as staff. Additionally, most in-person services for receiving filings and payments are suspended. Persons wishing to file paperwork or make payments should call the appropriate court for instructions.

Attached is a directory of County Offices. If you are not sure what office you need to contact, please call 989-832-6384 for assistance. You may also access our website for information at www.co.midland.mi.us and stay tuned to the County's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/co.midland.mi.us>.

Please stay tuned for future announcements as this is a rapidly changing event.
