New Year, New Things to Do to Keep You Active!

Check out things to do in Midland that you might not have thought about doing before.

- ❖ Midland Gymnastics Training Center has a drop in event for Special Needs kids and children under 7 every Saturday from 6:30PM – 7:30 PM (parents must stay and sign a consent form and there is a $7 open gym fee.) Contact Number: (989) 832-3045
- ❖ City Forrest toboggan run and sledding hill are open but weather dependant! Toboggans can be rented for $6 an hour and run only during the Chalet's hours. The sledding hill is unsupervised, lighted and available for sledding at your own risk daily from 8 AM to 10:PM. Don't have a sled? Sleds can be rented for $2 per two-hour rental. Steel runner sleds and snowboards are not permitted for safety reasons. Contact Number: (989) 835-7011
- ❖ Chippewa Nature Center has some interesting and fun winter activities on their calendar. Would you like to take a moonlight stroll through nature on Snowshoes? Chippewa Nature center has multiple nights for snowshoe hikes with the family, you must make a reservation to ensure they have snowshoes for you. There is also an Animal Traces and Trails class where you learn about some of the animal tracks and what to look for and then check for clues in the fields of animal activity. You can also spend an afternoon at the Sugar House where you can hear sap dripping into buckets, watch the steam rise off the evaporator pan as the sap is boiled down to make sweet maple syrup. Maple Syrup Day is Saturday, March 21 from 10 AM to 4 PM with an admission charge of $4 per person. There will be activities throughout the day at the Visitor Center, Homestead Farm, Log Schoolhouse, Sugarhouse and Sugarbush. There is also a pancake breakfast from 10 AM until 2 PM for $7 per person.
